A 50-50 drawing will be held at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, just prior to the benefit auction.

The festival will culminate with a parade at 3 p.m. Sunday. Larry Kimble is in charge of the parade.

The Lake Bruce Conservancy District held its monthly meeting Thursday, September 14, in the Kewanna Fire Department's community room. All five directors were present as well as eleven freeholders of the district.

The minutes of the August meeting were approved as well as the treasurer's report.

Chairman Norm Steigely covered correspondence received by the district during the month. It was reported that a letter had been received from Robert Engle stating that he was withdrawing the use of his property as a sediment basin. Also received was an e-mail from Gwen White of the DNR stating that tier 1 and 2 surveys would not be paid for by the DNR. Upon receipt of this letter, Weed Patrol was contacted. Tony Cunningham said that the district would not be billed for the surveys ($5800) by Weed Patrol for the work they did this year. He went on to say that he would not be doing any further surveys for the DNR in the future. Norm stated he had contacted JF New to get a quote on what they would be charging to do surveys in 2007. A letter from Steve Gottschalk, appraiser, stating that properties do not lose value or take longer to sell if they are near a vacuum station was received and forwarded to the Fulton County Commissioners. The board did receive an approval letter from Army Corps of Engineers for work in the wetlands (SW side of lake). We probably will not use this site as changes have been made in the design of the sewer project.

On old business covered: Norm Steigely attended the last hearing on the CFF grant at the Fulton County Commissioners meeting on August 21st and it was approved by the Commissioners. Director Tom Davies said that nothing new has happened on the dry hydrants to date. He stated that he should have some information for the board by the next meeting. It was mentioned that the vegetation along the channel near South Park Road will be treated next week. Also a lake survey will be done and they will be letting us know if we need any fall treatment.

New business covered: Fliers were handed out to the people in attendance about the Hydraulic in Lake Manitou. Norm explained that it is a very serious problem and that all the lakes in the area need to be on the look out for this highly dangerous weed. He explained that this could turn into a much more costly weed to eradicate that anything we have seen thus far. Estimates are that it may cost a million dollars to get it out of Lake Manitou. Board members have information on it if anyone would want more information.

The board approved the lease of land from Joe Rude for construction of a 10-acre sediment basin on his property to put the sediment from the dredging project. The cost is $150 per acre for each year until the land is reclaimed for farming. It is hoped that with the cooperation of Mother Nature, we can complete everything on the west side of the lake by April 15, 2007.

A contract was signed with Tennant's Industrial Dredging of Terre Haute to dredge 4 to 4.5 acres on the west side of the lake starting this fall. The cost is $100,100. of which $ 87,000 is covered by the LARE Grant the District was awarded by the DNR. Steve Tennant answered questions from those present. It is important to note that anyone who has property along these areas should get their piers and boats out of the water prior to dredging or their area will not be able to be dredged.

Steve Fralish of Wightman-Petrie gave a progress report on the sewer project. He reported that things are moving along as scheduled on the meeting hall design, treatment plant design and wetland permitting. He went on to say that major changes have occurred due to the change in final design of the project. After calculating information from the aerial topo maps, it was determined by AirVac that two vacuum stations would be necessary instead of one. The locations of the stations would be one on 1125 W and the other near Hoosier-Hide-Away. They are presently negotiating with two willing land owners about purchase of their property. It was noted that the cost of the project would not be dramatically impacted by these changes.

The district will not be able to get all the paperwork together for the CFF grant application in time for the fall deadline. The board tried unsuccessfully to get a letter of credit from a bank so we could meet the deadline. To overcome this, we will be applying to Rural Development for a larger grant than what we were going to ask. If we do not get it we will re-submit the CFF application for the spring round. We should know what direction we will take in December.

The board passed a motion for the treasurer to pursue finding a commercial bank to deal with as our status has drastically changed when we took on the sewer project.

The meeting adjourned at 8:29 p.m. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 12 at 7 p.m. at the Kewanna-Union Township Fire Department community room. It is open to all freeholders and interested parties.

Mill Creek Family Restaurant Slated To Open In Fulton

Alan and Tonya Cates are pleased to announce the opening of the Mill Creek Family Restaurant in Fulton. Located on State Road 25, the restaurant hopes to be open by October 1st.

Alan has 27 years in the food service industry, with most of those years being spent managing the former Amber's Restaurant in Logansport. He hopes to bring Fulton and the surrounding areas a place to come to enjoy a home cooked meal in a friendly, small town, smoke free environment.

Family owned and operated, Mill Creek Family Restaurant will offer a separate menu for breakfast, lunch and dinner along with a children's menu. Hand cut USDA choice steaks, seafood, home cooked meals and homemade soups are a just a sample of the many items that are sure to please any palate.

The Mill Creek Family Restaurant's hours of operation will be Tuesday thru Saturday, 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., and Sunday 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Benefit for Steve & Alison Foster Family, Oct. 14

A pork tenderloin benefit dinner will be held Saturday, October 14, from 4 to 7:30 p.m. EDT in the Winamac High School cafeteria. The cost of the meal will be a free will donation. Those who wish to dine-in should enter through the south entrance. Those wanting carry-outs should pull through the front drive.

The Tippecanoe Christian Church organized the benefit for the Fosters who recently lost an infant child and are now facing medical and funeral expenses.

Notice to Veterans

Veterans from all branches of military service will be recognized during the American Pride - Tribute to America program at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 30, during the Kewanna Fall Festival. All servicemen and former servicemen are asked to be present for the occasion, which will be held on the Main Street stage.

Career Fair at Monticello

A community career fair will be held from 2 to 7 p.m. Thursday, September 21, in the Brandywine Convention Center of the Best Western Hotel in Monticello.

This is an opportunity for job applicants to meet with perspective employers from White County. Participating employers will be accepting resumes during this event.

Professional trainers will be conducting resume writing classes and offering entrance testing in math to potential applicants wishing to achieve greater employment potential.

16th Annual Bazaar at Fulton U.M. Church

The Fulton United Methodist Church will host its 16th annual bazaar Friday, October 7, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The bazaar offers a large variety of crafts, homemade mincemeat and regular and cholesterol-free noodles. A 91" x 91" handmade quilt will be raffled off and attendees can enjoy homemade cinnamon rolls and lunch.

Youth Essay Contest Deadline, Oct. 17

All 8th grade students in Indiana are invited to participate in the annual essay contest sponsored by Indiana Farm Bureau, Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance, and Sen. Richard Lugar.

"Feeding Our Bodies, Fueling the Future" is the theme for the essay contest.

The contest began in 1985 and is designed to increase the awareness of young Hoosiers as to the significance of Indiana agriculture, how it relates to the food supply and to their personal health. This year's theme expands that focus to agriculture's role in the production of fuels such as ethanol and biodiesel.

Contest brochures were mailed to public schools as well as to home school representatives in early September. The brochure is also available as a PDF file on the Indiana Farm Bureau website www.infarmbureau.org. All essays must be mailed to your local Farm Bureau county woman leader and must be postmarked no later than October 17.

Essays will be judged on the basis of correct grammar and punctuation, spelling, understanding the topic, neatness and overall appearance, originality and creativity.

More information is available from your county Farm Bureau or your school principal. One boy and one girl from each of Farm Bureau's 10 districts will be chosen as finalists. The state winners – one boy and one girl – will be honored at Indiana Farm Bureau's annual convention, December 8 and 9, and will win a trip to Washington, D.C., courtesy of Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance.

Jordan O'Neal finished 4th for the JV boys and McKenna Harmon was 12th for the JV girls while Brittany Scales finished 21st.

Heath Gearhart finished 8th for the varsity boys with Albert Collins moving up to 21st, Garrett Redweik 22nd, Payton Dailey 23rd, Heath Sommers 26th, Robbie Lewark 27th and Rodney Clemans 28th.

Michelle Centers also ran a good race finishing 4th for the varsity girls. Veronica Sheets was 16th, Alison Chandler 21st, Kassie Hoagland 22nd, Aurora Berg 24th, Shyanne Oberg 25th and Kaley Kellenberger 27th.

Final Results

Varsity Boys: Pioneer, 27; Logansport, 36; Lewis Cass, 78; Caston, 100

Varsity Girls: Logansport, 26; Pioneer, 40; Lewis Cass, 79; Caston 87

The Comets ran in an invitational at Carroll Tuesday, Sept. 12, on a wet, soggy course. Both teams finished 8th. Michelle Centers paced the Lady Comets while Heath Gearhart was the first Comet across the finish line.

George Godfrey, Athens, Illinois, blessed the Potawatomi Trail of Death Regional Historic Trail highway sign located on the west side of Old U.S. 31, just south of Indiana 110 by the County Landfill Friday, Sept. 15. Godfrey is a member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, and had an ancestor on the 1838 Trail of Death from Indiana to Kansas. There are now five historic trail highway signs in Fulton County, the first in the nation. They were sponsored by the Manitou

Chapter of Daughters of American Revolution. Other counties will follow with highway signs marking the trail across their county so motorists, hikers and bikers can follow the 660-mile route to Kansas and find the 78 Trail of Death historical markers at each camp site. All the historical markers were erected by volunteers at no expense to taxpayers. For more information and pictures of all 78 markers, see www.potawatomi-tda.org.

Local Items

Virginia Agnew of here and her daughter-in-law, Pam Agnew of Rochester, have returned home from Atlanta, Georgia, after spending ten days with Alfredo, Kelly and Lucas Barquin. While there, Virginia's 12th great-grandchild was born to Alfredo and Kelly. Sofia Grace checked in at 6 pounds and 10 ounces. Virginia and Pam helped take care of the new arrival, her two-year-old "big brother", and mom and dad, too.

Julie Brown enjoyed attending the Caston vs. Winamac elementary football game Sunday.

Vera Ambrose and Wilma Wilson were among those who enjoyed attending the Dittman family reunion Sunday. The event was held in the community room of the local fire station.

Kathy Fisher and Rita Foust paid a visit to Gail Scheeringa Sunday. Gail is temporarily restricted to "stay off her feet".

Kay and Jerry Brown had a caller Sunday. Stopping by for a visit was Kay's sister, Karen Kruger.

Shirley Zartman was among those who enjoyed attending the special program Sunday afternoon at the Kewanna United Methodist Church. The program was entitled "Disney Spectacular Plus" and was presented by the Peabody Entertainers from North Manchester.

Barb Hieber and JoAnne Tsoodle had a nice time attending a local auction Sunday.

Those persons who will be having birthdays next week (so please remember to give them your best regards) are: Savannah Bitterling, Brandon Long and Angie Whiteman, Sept. 24;

Debbie McGee and John Wegner, Sept. 25; Chad Lowry, Sept. 26; Jay Burkett, Mary Fisher, Nathan Miller, Dawn Nikolich, Jane Strong and Donny Weller, Sept. 27; Heather Green, Jane Johnson and Joshua Robson, Sept. 28; Jerry Brown, Jane Green and Carrie Brown, Sept. 29; and Abigail Troutman, Sept. 30.

There are three couples who will be celebrating their wedding anniversaries next week: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swafford and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Wolf, Sept. 24 and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Birge, Sept. 27.

Thirty-two players enjoyed this year's Kewanna golf outing last Thursday at Pond View Golf Course. Two teams finished the 18-holes tied at 10 under par. The winning team was selected by the toss of a coin and included (left to right) Sven Johnson, Sandy Sutton, Joe Pesaresi and Rich Moise. Members of the other team carding a 10 under were Rod Hall, Bruce Foster, Buzz Davis and Randy Hall.

Bill Lucas was closest to the pin on #1 and Sonny Small was closest on #10. Each received a sleeve of golf balls donated by Dick Mitchell of Harris Waste Management Group, Inc.

Thanks to Pond View Golf Course for the use of the course and the great food.

ASK THE LANDSCAPER Leesa Metzger

METZGER LANDSCAPING & DESIGN LLC

Professional landscape designer and former agriculture, botany, and horticulture teacher answers local reader's questions about gardening, plant care and maintenance, and flowering choices.

Q. I really love mums every fall, but most of the mums I buy don't come back the next spring. The ones that do make it the next year look straggly. Is there anything I can do to make them look as good the second time around? - Kathy M.

It's time for some garden excitement. Chrysanthemums have long been regarded as the choice flower for late season color. And, oh, what color they have now in shades of yellow, pink, orange, red, bronze, purple and white. The flower types are equally as diverse from daisy, anemone, semi-double, buttons, pompoms and double.

A simple gardening technique called "pinching" makes mums compact and encourages branching. The plants grow more compact and produce more flowers. Just like pinching a cute kid's cheek, pinching is done with the thumb and forefinger. The new growth is removed. Pinching can be just the removal of the new emerging leaves or it can be down several inches to a side bud.

Pinching encourages branching because it removes the dominant bud. Consider the top new growth as the "queen" bud. Normally the "queen" bud gets the majority of the food and growth hormones. She grows and thrives. All the side buds are the "ladies-in-waiting". When the "queen" is removed, dominance spreads out to the "ladies-in-waiting". The side buds now get more food and growth hormones and they grow. Since it takes time for the side buds to get moving, pinching usually delays flowering. This delay can be to your advantage because continual pinching can extend the flowering season.

Mums are short day/long night plants. Flowers are initiated when the day length (actually the length of darkness) reaches a certain period. They naturally bloom as the days get shorter in the late summer. The period of darkness required to initiate blooming depends on the cultivar. By careful cultivar selection a garden could have blooming mums from August through October. Florist mums require a very long night so they do not set buds until late in the season and are often killed by frost before they ever have a chance to flower in the garden.

Most outdoor mum varieties are now listed as garden mums and not hardy mums. Cold tolerance is only one essential attribute for mums to live through the winter. Mums are best planted in full sun in well-drained soil. One of the reasons mums fail to live through the winter is overly wet soils in fall and winter. Soil drainage can be improved by adding compost to the soil and planting in a slightly raised area.

Mums are best planted in spring to assure better establishment and therefore winter survival. In spring mums are generally available as four inch pot plants, but they will grow quickly into sizable plants by fall. In order to produce bushy well-branched plants, mums need to be pinched two or three times during the growing season. The first pinch is done when the plants are about six to eight inches tall. After these branches grow six inches or so they should be pinched again continuing until July 4th. Pinching promotes numerous flowers and reduces the need for staking.

For fall-planted mums flowering takes precedence over root growth and establishment. The second best time for mum planting is late August to early September to allow at least some time for establishment before cold weather sets in.

Mums have a shallow, fibrous root system so water thoroughly during hot, dry weather. After flowering has ceased, trim off old flowers and fertilize with a low nitrogen fertilizer such as 5-10-10. Mums also respond well to additional fertilizer during the growing season.

After the ground freezes trim off the dead stems and place them back on top of the plant crown. Mulch with shredded leaves for additional winter protection. If you buy mums this fall, look for plants in bud with only a little color showing. Plant as soon as possible and keep soil moist but not soggy. Mums are just what the garden needs for a burst of late season color.

Annual Asbestos Report

According to Caston School Corporation's annual asbestos report, the areas which contain asbestos materials are the classrooms with the original floor tile. Areas that have new tile, such as the elementary gym lobby, room 216 and room 244 have vinyl composition tile, which do not contain asbestos products.

The condition of the vinyl/asbestos flooring and other areas are monitored on a regular basis as required by AHERA (Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act) regulations.

The sixth of the three-year inspections (as required by AHERA) was conducted during the summer of 2006. An EPA certified inspector conducted this inspection. The next inspection will be conducted during the summer of 2009.

Copies of all inspection reports and the school's management plan are available for review in the office of the superintendent of schools. If you have any questions or concerns, contact the superintendent's office.

Land Use Conference, Oct. 31

Farmers, local government officials and anyone else interested in land-use issues should plan to attend the 9th annual "Communities at the Crossroads" conference, sponsored by the Indiana Land Use Consortium and set for October 31 at the Indiana Government Center South in Indianapolis.

Subtitled "Balancing Land Use for a Prosperous State," the day-long conference will focus on the connections between land use, economic development, and quality of life for all Indiana citizens. The consortium, founded in 1997, is an ad hoc collection of groups interested in land use. Indiana Farm Bureau is among the more than 40 member organizations.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to browse the commercial exhibits at the conference throughout the day.

Registration is $90; student registration is $45. The consortium is also offering a limited number of partial scholarships. Registration forms are available at the consortium's website www.indianalanduse.org.

Town & Country CHATTER...

By: Julie Brown (574) 653-2451

Monday morning, Sept. 11, Tim Cogdill of Macy arrived for a visit with his mother, Ruth Cogdill. They enjoyed sitting on the front porch having coffee and catching up on all the family news.

Barb Hieber was in South Bend recently. After taking care of an errand, she enjoyed the Art Beat fair that was held throughout the city.

Rita and David Foust traveled to Kokomo Tuesday, Sept. 12, to visit with Rita's mother, Eva Buzzard. Eva accompanied them home for an extended visit. Also visiting with the Fousts were Rita's cousins, Johnny and JoAnne Courts and Peggy Burge of Kokomo, Jean Lint of California (who were staying at the Hoosier Hideaway). Everyone in the family had a great time visiting back- and- forth throughout the week.

Tom and Barb LaFollette and Bob and Carol Broda were among those who enjoyed the wings dinner served at the Rochester Moose lodge Tuesday evening. Joining them for a visit during the meal were the LaFollettes' daughter and grandchildren, Karina Bohac, Shelby and Nick, and Shelby's friend, Kyle.

Mildred McColley had a houseguest one day last week. Joining her for a working visit was her son, Ron McColley of Frankfort.

The Birthday Club met Wednesday, Sept. 13, at The Bagel Place in Rochester. Gathering for an afternoon of visiting were Doris Woolington, Wileta Wilson, Betty Leazenby, Barb Gast, Martha Ann Cook and Florence Baldwin.

Eva Buzzard, Peggy Burge, Johnny and JoAnne Courts, Rita and David Foust and Jean Lint were joined by Jean's best friends Wednesday. Coming down from Bloomfield, Michigan to join in the fun were David and Peggy Waikal.

Barb and Tom LaFollette had company Thursday, Sept. 14. Coming up for a visit were Bud and Ingrid Landis of Kokomo and Ingrid's mother, Herta Fischer of Nila, Germany. The group enjoyed some catching- up, dinner, driving around the area and checking on the new barn and chicken coop the LaFollettes recently erected. From Lake Bruce, the Landises and Herta were headed for Chicago. Herta was to catch a flight home to Germany that evening.

Don and Pauline Scales traveled to Ft. Wayne Thursday. After taking care of some errands, they were joined by their daughter, Ellen Heiden of Columbia City, for a visit over lunch.

Wilma Wilson had company recently. Staying as her houseguest for a few days was her sister, Vera Ambrose of Byron Center, Michigan.

Karen Kruger of Brownsburg was a weekend houseguest of her mother, Mary K. Williamson near Winamac.

Linda Garner and her mother, Pauline Scales, enjoyed a day out together Friday, Sept. 15. They did some shopping and had lunch in Logansport.

Helen Miller had company over the weekend. Staying as her houseguests for a few days were her granddaughter and family, Suzanne and Mike Crump, Katie and Tyler, of Muncie.

Nadine Moberly had a houseguest recently. Paying her a birthday visit for a few days was her daughter, Janet Eaton of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Pauline Brown traveled to Fairland Saturday, Sept. 16. She enjoyed spending the day as a guest of her son and his family, Jim and Deb Brown and Clayton. Stuart and Rachel Gast of Winamac were joined by their son and daughter- in- law, Jon and Barb Gast, for a visit Saturday. The foursome had a delightful time helping Stuart celebrate his 94th birthday with dinner at the Indian Head Restaurant.

Several members of Helen Miller's family traveled to Hobart Saturday. They had a fun time watching Katie Crump participate in a soccer match.

The Lake Bruce Association's annual Souper Soup Surprise tasting contest was held Saturday. This year's winner was Carol Broda's tortilla soup. Thirty-five locals attended the event to enjoy the many soups that were submitted for tasting (and the numerous desserts, also).

Several members of the Evers family had a great time Saturday evening during an overnight campout at Salamonie Reservoir.

Tom and Linda Garner had company Sunday, Sept. 17. Arriving early in the day for a visit were their daughter and grandson, Amanda Wassermann and Zach of Valparaiso. In the afternoon, the group was joined by the Garners' son, T.J., for a trip to Caston and the elementary football game. The Garners' grandson, Trey Young of Twelve Mile, is a player for Caston.

Grace Harmony hosted a special program at the Kewanna Church of Christ Sunday morning. Following the program, a carry- in luncheon was enjoyed by all.

Mathilda Lamb had several visitors Sunday. Stopping by for an energetic visit were her grandson and his family, Brian and Pam Gallagher, Drew, A.J. and Jake of Ft. Wayne, and her brother, Dave Besse. Later in the afternoon, Mathilda and Dave headed for Star City and dinner at the Oak Grove Restaurant in honor of Dave's birthday.

Judy Scott of Frankfort was the guest of honor at a family gathering Sunday. The event was in honor of her birthday and hosted by her mother, Helen Miller. Helping them mark the occasion with dinner and a lot of visiting were Judy's husband, John Scott; her daughters and their families, Nancy Mann, Travis and Trevor, of Russiaville and Suzanne and Mike Crump, Katie and Tyler; and her grandson, Patrick Mills of Russiaville.

Local mushroom hunters Wade Bussert (pictured) and Jeff Skersick filled the back of Wade's van one day last week with fall mushrooms - hen of the woods and sulphur shelf. The duo is also avid spring mushroom hunters.

Dawn Gabrich, MS, ATC, LAT, of Woodlawn Hospital Therapy Professionals, is shown with her award presented by the American Heart Association at its annual "Heroes Luncheon."

Dawn rescued a spectator who collapsed at a basketball game at Grace College in February. As a trained professional, Dawn initiated early CPR and delivered defibrillations using an AED.

Thanks, Dawn, for being a good neighbor!

Compassion makes her a great neighbor, too!

Dedication to caring for others, both on and off the job, is not unusual among Woodlawn Hospital employees. We think its because our not-for-profit community hospital attracts service-oriented people, something both our neighbors and patients can appreciate.

Sometimes its easy to forget that medicine is more than just technology and special skills. Good medicine is people - people helping other people.

At Woodlawn Hospital, we're proud of the fact that every member of our family is dedicated to the health of you and your family.
